Measure	:
Timeframe	:

Intended Outcome

Board decisions are made objectively in the best interests of the company taking into account diverse perspectives and insights.

Practice 4.2

The tenure of an independent director does not exceed a cumulative term limit of nine years. Upon completion of the nine years, an independent director may continue to serve on the board as a non-independent director.

If the board intends to retain an independent director beyond nine years, it should justify and seek annual shareholders' approval. If the board continues to retain the independent director after the twelfth year, the board should seek annual shareholders' approval through a two-tier voting process.

Application	:	Applied - Annual shareholders' approval for independent directors serving beyond 9 years
Explanation on application of the practice	:	At the last annual general meeting, the Company had sought shareholders' approval for Mr Kwong Hoi Meng, Mr Raymond Cha Kar Siang and Mr Raiappan s/o Yagappan @ Raiappan Peter, who served the Board as Independent Non-Executive Directors for a cumulative term of more than nine (9) years, to continue to act as the independent directors of the Company. The Company would continue to seek shareholders' approval at the forthcoming annual general meeting for them to continue to act as the independent directors of the Company. During their tenure, our Independent Non-Executive Directors continued to exercise their independence and carried out their professional duties in the best interest of the Company and shareholders.

Intended Outcome

Stakeholders are able to form an opinion on the overall effectiveness of the board and individual directors.

Practice 5.1

The board should undertake a formal and objective annual evaluation to determine the effectiveness of the board, its committees and each individual director. The board should disclose how the assessment was carried out and its outcome.

For Large Companies, the board engages independent experts periodically to facilitate objective and candid board evaluations.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	For the financial year under review, the Nominating Committee (“NC”) reviewed and assessed the mix of skills, expertise, composition, size and experience of the Board of Directors. The Nominating Committee also reviewed and assessed the performance of each individual director, the effectiveness of the Board and the Board Committees. The performance evaluation sheets were distributed to all Directors of the Company for feedbacks and the completed forms gathered from all directors were tabled to the NC for assessment and discussion. The NC, based on the result and comment indicated in the evaluation forms of the Board and the other performance evaluation sheets which included Audit Committee (“AC”), Remuneration Committee (“RC”) and self-evaluation form of directors, with the feedbacks and inputs provided by the Directors, the NC will form their opinion and make a recommendation to the Board. During the year under review, NC had also assessed the term of office of the AC members and the performance of the AC and its members. The Board then based on the feedback received from the NC and their recommendation will conclude as to whether the Board composition was adequately balanced to ensure continued effectiveness and efficiency.
